The Real Problem With Breaking Up California

A Silicon Valley investor's proposal to divide California into six separate states would create stark divides along lines of poverty and income.

Percent living in poverty in each proposed new state, 2012

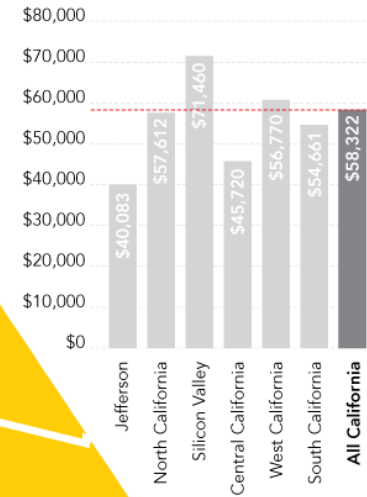

Median household income, 2012

- $22,126-$35,437
- $35,438-$42,346
- $42,347-$51,370
- $51,371-$58,776
- $58,777-$75,048
- $75,049-$121-250

Percent living in poverty in all of California, 2012

Median household income of each proposed new state, 2012
